

Clinical Nurse Educator – Renal Dialysis Department

Part time 8 hours per week

Location: Sydney Adventist Hospital, Wahroonga, NSW

Would you like to join a successful team of educators within a hospital renowned for excellence in all areas of health care? Is being part of a team that values your experience and knowledge important to you?

The Clinical Nurse Educator role is an excellent opportunity to impart knowledge and skills through the delivery of education and support within a busy Dialysis Unit. Applications are invited from Registered Nurses who meet the following criteria:

Essential

- Current AHPRA Registration
- 2 years' recent experience in renal dialysis
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Proficient time management skills
- Proven commitment to ongoing self-development i.e. 'Between the Flags'
- Demonstrated clinical leadership and teamwork skills
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or enrolled in program
- Minimum 4 years nursing experience
- Preceptor experience, and completion of Preceptor Training (or equivalent post graduate teaching subject)
- Experienced in Microsoft Office Suite i.e. Outlook, Word, PowerPoint
- Relevant post registration certificate/qualifications or working towards
- Ability to implement and evaluate educational programs
- Member of a professional body or association specific to speciality

Desirable

- Post graduate qualification in education
- Clinical Nurse Specialist

Applicants must be Australian Citizens or have rights to work permanently in Australia.

Enquiries to Kay Leatherland Kaylene.leatherland@sah.org.au or phone (02) 9487 9210

Applications to Meredith Ivers Meredith.Ivers@sah.org.au Applications close 15 February, 2019