

Registered Nurses & Enrolled Nurses – Medical Oncology ward - full time, part time, casual opportunities available

Sydney Adventist Hospital is seeking Registered and Enrolled Nurses with recent nursing experience in oncology nursing with a minimum of 1 year's experience all the way through to Clinical Nurse Specialists or those aspiring to increase their knowledge and skill in the Medical Oncology area. Our Oncology team is committed to providing an environment where our patients can have the very best of care.

If you have excellent clinical skills, and would like to be part of a caring team, you will need to meet the following criteria:

Essential criteria:

- Current nursing registration with AHPRA
- Proven ability to work as a contributing and cooperative member of a team
- Good time management and ability to prioritise
- Demonstrated commitment to best practice and quality management participation
- Demonstrated high level written and oral communication skills
- Demonstrated commitment to patient care
- Willingness to commit to a rotating roster across all shifts
- Current Blood Safe and DETECT competencies

Desirable criteria

- Recent nursing oncology experience
- Chemotherapy experience

The successful applicant will benefit from:

- A caring and identifiable culture
- Competitive remuneration including salary packaging
- A staff discount program
- Staff only events to say "thank you for your commitment and hard work"

We regret we cannot accept applications from New Graduates at this time.

Applicants must be Australian Citizens or have rights to work permanently in Australia.

Enquiries to Karen Swensen, Nursing Unit Manager Poon, on 02 (02) 9487 9670 or email Karen.Swensen@sah.org.au

Please forward fully completed applications in a PDF format, including a cover letter addressing the selection criteria and copies of your Blood Safe and DETECT competencies, current curriculum vitae and completed application form (which can be found on the website <http://www.sah.org.au/>) to Karen.Swensen@sah.org.au

Applications will be reviewed as they are submitted.
